

Semi-Finals in Tennis Tournament Due
To Be Played This Afternoon

MATCHES WILL START AT TWO O'CLOCK—MANY SURPRISES AND UPSETS OCCUR OVER WEEK-END—TOURNAMENT BIG SUCCESS IN EVERY WAY—CONSOLATION CONTESTS GET A GOOD START

TOURNAMENT MATCHES RESUMED AT TWO O'CLOCK THIS AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 10

True to the predictions, in every respect, the annual Labor Day Tournament of the Narberth Tennis Association, which opened last Saturday, is proving to be the biggest and most successful tournament that the local association has ever held. There were more entries in both the Men's Singles and Doubles than in any previous year, the new courts at Haverford and Montgomery avenues proved to be as fine and as fast as could have been hoped for them, the weather behaved "as it had ought to" over a holiday week-end, and to cap the climax—there was the biggest gallery of spectators that has ever witnessed the opening rounds of a Labor Day Tournament.

Perhaps it is not quite correct to be so lavish in praise of the weather, particularly with respect to Saturday. True, the rain held off; and for that everybody was thankful, but the temperature and humidity Saturday afternoon were painfully like the weather and humidity on the Fourth of July. However, as some one has said, "every cloud has its silver lining," and the new shower baths in the club house were certainly a silver lining, an oasis, and a relief station all rolled into one to the club members.

Biggest List of Entries.

In no respect were the first two days of the tournament more successful than in a strictly tennis sense. There were thirty-nine entries in the singles and twenty teams in the doubles. Using all seven courts the Tournament Committee ran off twenty-three matches in the singles and ten matches in the doubles on Saturday afternoon, and ten matches in the singles and six matches in the doubles on Labor Day. A little less speed in this respect was made on Monday because particularly all of the players remaining in the Singles tournament were also members of surviving teams in the Doubles tournament.

But with all of Saturday's and Monday's matches, and two mid-week matches, both tournaments arrived at the semi-finals, which will probably be played this afternoon, Saturday, September 10. And these will be contests worth seeing.

Laurence Warwick Beats Kirkpatrick.

In the upper bracket of the singles, the two surviving players who will meet in the semi-finals are Laurence Warwick and Bob Fretz. Warwick's defeat of W. J. Kirkpatrick on Monday afternoon in two straight sets was one of the surprises of the tournament. Bob Fretz, playing through from the preliminary round, not only eliminated all of his rivals but succeeded in winning the championship of the Fretz family, no matter how he comes out in the tournament. He defeated his brother

Bill in the first round in two straight sets and eliminated Brother Frank in two out of three sets in the second round.

In the lower bracket, Thorny Grugan, runner-up in last year's singles' tournament, and Jim Follin have come through to the semi-finals.

The Doubles tournament has also reached the semi-finals which will quite likely be played this afternoon. Bob and Franklin Fretz will meet Allen and Grugan in the upper bracket, and Kirkpatrick and Staples will meet McKell and McCahill in the deciding round in the lower bracket.

Kirkpatrick and Staples' victory over Shaw and Warwick proved to be one of the best matches of the week end. It went to three sets and the last set went to 11-9. Every point in the last half dozen games were hotly contested, and

for School BoardTWO WOMEN AMONG ASPIRANTS
FOR DIRECTORS—TWO TERMS
EXPIRE THIS FALL.

For the first time in some years there promises to be a contest for the position of School Director at the coming primaries, which take place Tuesday, September 20.

The terms of two members of the Board will expire this fall. These are Mr. Robert Dohard and Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, who has been filling the unexpired term of Mr. W. Y. Shaw, who resigned this June. Both these Directors have filed their petitions for reelection. These two names, on the Republican ticket, will be the only candidates for the School Board mentioned on the printed ballot.

The Democratic Club of Narberth, however, together with a number of Republicans, have brought forth the names of Mr. Harry M. Chalfant and Mrs. Lester W. Nickerson as additional candidates for the position of School Director.

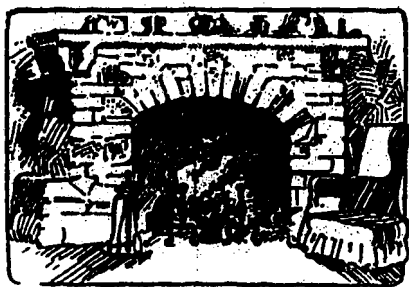

In another part of this issue there appears an advertisement on the subject of these nominations. The interest in School Board matters is stronger this year than ever before, and a great deal of thought will be given by many voters to the choice of their representatives on the Board.

Our Town will be pleased to receive and publish a statement from each of these nominees on their "platform" on school matters. We feel that this would interest our readers, and we take this opportunity of inviting those interested to communicate with us before our next issue.

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 16,
8 P. M., IN THE Y. M. C. A.
CONSTITUTIONAL CON-VENTION TO BE DISCUSSED.

The above meeting is being called primarily to place before both men and women the importance of voting "Yes" for a Constitutional Convention at the coming primaries. This subject will be ably presented by Mr. Kenneth L. M. Pray, Secretary of the Public Charities Association of Philadelphia.

As separate ballots are to be provided for this purpose and for Congressman-at-Large it is the desire of this organization to assist in facilitating voting on September 20 by presenting all these facts as clearly as possible before that date.

There are perhaps many questions in the minds of voters, particularly the new voter, relative to voting, taxes, etc., and every effort will be made to answer any such questions.

An invitation has been sent to all the officers in the borough elected by the people in order that all voters, and particularly the newer residents, may better know the men who represent them and to whom to appeal when the need presents itself.

The various duties and responsibilities of these offices will be briefly outlined for the information of those desiring it.

If time permits, a similar outline may be given of the county offices.

An invitation is hereby extended to any prospective borough candidates appearing on the fall ticket to also attend this meeting and become known to the voters.

All in all, this is an open forum to all residents of Narberth. Be sure and remember the date, Friday evening, September 16th, 8 P. M., in the Y. M. C. A.

TO HOLD CARD PARTY

The Women's Auxiliary of the Narberth Tennis Association will hold a card party next Wednesday afternoon, September 14th.

The card party will take place in the new club room at the Tennis grounds. This event will give the ladies of the Association a chance to become acquainted with the splendid work done by the Grounds Committee in putting the building in first class shape.

An admission charge of 50 cents will be made. All ladies of the club are invited. The party will be given by Mrs. Brooke Seaton, Mrs. A. J. Newell, Mrs. Roy Williams, Mrs. Walter Y. Shaw, Mrs. William Boryer, and Mrs. Harry Hartley.

Editorial

THE FINAL SHOT

As announced editorially last week, this issue of Our Town is the last in which controversial articles or letters on the sparrow question will be printed for the time being.

The argument had its place as light summer literature, but the time is here when we must turn to more serious things. The writer in the garden column fires his parting shot in answer to the letter of two weeks ago controverting certain of his statements, and so, with this article, must the sparrow scrap die.

Requiescat In Pace!

A STATEMENT FROM THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

To the Editor of Our Town:

In last week's issue, under the caption "Chinese Laundry Coming to Narberth—Maybe," you call attention to the signs in the window of the store on Haverford avenue recently occupied by Narberth Shoe Store, and close your article with the question, "Did our Chamber of Commerce make a bid for this addition to our community?"

The Chamber of Commerce not only did not bid for this business, but would dislike to see a business of this kind established on the main street. In an interview the writer had with the owner of the store referred to he informed him that the lease had been signed while he was away from his office on account of ill health, and from his remarks, the writer feels that the business referred to will not open up there.

Respectfully,

DANIEL LEITCH,
President.

Scout News

THE SCOUTS IN CAMP

As it has been my custom each year to write up the scout trip to Camp Delmont, I will endeavor to give some of the most interesting events.

First of all, we were there, 21 strong, transported by Mr. Cabrey in his big 5 ton truck. We arrived at Camp Delmont at twelve noon, which enabled us to enjoy the morning swim after we were assigned to our quarters, the best on the grounds, being shacks No. 1, 3 and 5.

After mess the boys went around meeting old friends while I prepared my list for table, kitchen and sanitary duties for the week.

It is always the custom, that the first night the boys are at camp, the program calls for a long hike after drill, so that they will enjoy a good sleep and will not rough house. As I had planned to surprise the camp directors with a novelty drill commanded by bugle calls instead of voice, with the Narberth Troop, I asked permission to have our boys excused from the hike, so that I could practice them in the drill, which, by the way, was very nicely executed, and received a great deal of praise.

Where I made the mistake, however, was in getting them excused from the hike, for if ever a bunch of boys broke loose the first night at camp it was that Narberth bunch. It was way along in the wee hours of the morning before they let up, and, my, what a sorry looking crowd they were, cleaning up the campus alone, like a chain gang the next morning.

That was not all the hardships they went through, for on Tuesday the Narberth boys felt very gay at 5 A. M., and started rough house, thinking that as they were up it was time for everyone to be up, and proceeded to wake the others up. For this offence they were again detailed on hard sanitary duty which they resented, but found they could not go against the rules and regulations of a camp.

This was all the unpleasantness that occurred, but I certainly was sorry it happened. It spoiled my vacation trip that I had looked forward to for one year as the entire responsibility of my troop was turned over to me. After that we had a better time, as I have never had my wishes or demands refused by any of my scouts as long as I have been Scout Master. We turned in to have a good time, and I impressed on the boys that the only way to have it was to live up to the regulations of the camp, which they did, and we came home with flying colors.

I wish that Our Town was larger so I could inform you of all the different little jokes and tricks played on the different boys, but as I am limited to space, will not mention any of the boys separately, suffice to say that they all came in for their share of jokes, and you need only ask any of the boys and they will tell you what a good time they had.

Our little mascot was with us as usual and had the time of his life.

Scouts Gordon Rudolph, Robert Patten, Joseph Snyder, Thomas Merkle and Atherton Lane stayed for the second week.

Joseph Snyder coming away with high honors, making enough points to win his "C. D." and a green bar pin with three stars in it. Atherton Lane also had a very good record, having earned to be a First Class Scout, won his "C. D." camp letters and a green bar with two stars in it.

Robert Patten earned seven merit badges, having earned his "C. D." last year, Gordon Rudolph earned three merit badges, also having earned his "C. D." last year. Joseph Snyder and Atherton Lane also earned 4 or 5 merit badges—Thomas Merkle did not seem to get a good start, so could not come under the wire with the other boys.

Mr. J. J. Cabrey had his 5 ton truck at Camp on Saturday morning one week after he sent us there, and all but 5 Scouts came home after a very pleasant week at Camp Delmont.

FRED C. PATTEN,
Scout Master.

HELPS CAPTURE BURGLAR

Fred Shaw, one of the owners of the large green bus, which formerly operated between Narberth and Philadelphia, assisted in the capture of a burglar in Merion, Tuesday of this week.

He was returning from the Byberry Fair, where he has been operating his bus, and was just in time to assist in the chase after a burglar who had been discovered in a Merion home, and who attempted an escape.

The man was captured and taken to Ardmore in the bus.

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

A meeting of the Executive Board of the Narberth Women's Community Club will be held on Monday morning, September 12th, at ten o'clock. This meeting will be held at the home of the President, Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, 105 Chestnut avenue.

AUTO DESTROYED

An automobile driven by A. Perry Redifer, Jr., of Narberth, was destroyed by fire last Thursday in a collision with another car at Wynnefield and Parkside avenues.

In the car at the time, were Messrs. Robert, F. W. and William Fre'z, of Narberth. Fortunately no one was injured.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETING

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will hold its first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. George Merritt Davis, 121 Woodside avenue, next Monday afternoon at 2.30.

The annual election of officers will take place at this meeting.

AMERICAN LEGION MEETING

The first meeting of the American Legion, for this fall will be held on Monday night, September 12th, at 8 P. M., in Elm Hall.

A full attendance is urged for this meeting. A delegate and an alternate will be elected for the State Convention to be held at Pittsburgh during the third week of September.

JUNIORS' TENNIS TOURNAMENT WILL START NEXT MONDAY AFTERNOON

The Juniors' Singles and Doubles Tournament of the Narberth Tennis Association will start next Monday, September 12, on the courts at Haverford and Montgomery avenues. The Tournament Committee will make a drawing of all juniors, and those who appear for play and pay their entrance fee of fifty cents, will be entered, and those who fail to appear will be defaulted.

Juniors desiring any information concerning their tournament should get in touch with Robert E. Pattison, Jr., chairman, or A. T. Grogan or W. J. Kirkpatrick.

The Tennis Association is anxious to have as many of the juniors enter the tournament as possible. They have deferred the contest until after Labor Day and the opening of school because by this time practically all the juniors are home from their vacation. Silver cups will be awarded the winners in both the Juniors' Singles and Doubles.

FOR SCHOOL DIRECTORS

At a recent meeting of the Democratic Club of Narberth, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"In view of the fact that there is widespread dissatisfaction with the conduct of our school affairs, and in view of the further fact that no names have been filed for the Democratic nominations for School Directors:

"Be it therefore resolved that the Democratic Club of Narberth request Harry M. Chalfant and Mrs. Abbie W. Nickerson to permit the use of their names to be written on the Democratic ballot at the coming Primary election."

Mr. Chalfant and Mrs. Nickerson have consented to this request. Mr. Chalfant has been for eight years a resident of Narberth and is a property owner and taxpayer. He is an editor and lecturer, and enjoyed several years experience as a school teacher just after his graduation from Washington and Jefferson College. He is a man of fine judgment and tact, and is especially interested in the local schools, one of his daughters having graduated from the High School here, another, being still a High School pupil.

Mrs. Nickerson is recognized by her wide circle of friends as a woman of initiative and experience, and unusual executive ability. She is exceedingly well informed in the best methods of child training, and has kept in sympathetic touch with the local schools in connection with the attendance there of her own children.

It is believed by their friends that no more conscientious or better qualified persons could be chosen to serve upon the School Board.—adv.

Tennis Semi-Finals Today

the outcome was constantly in doubt up to that last placement of Arthur Staples which concluded the match and gave to him and his partner the victory over the winners of the last two doubles tournaments.

The Consolation Singles Tournament also made good headway and reached the semi-finals, which will probably be played this afternoon. In the upper bracket Scanlin meets M. The above department should be of the greatest use to the community. The list contains the names of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those who now found in the printed list would send in statement of their names, address, phone numbers, and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost no more than 10 cents each name for 2 lines; 1 cent for each additional line.

Annual Dahlia Show

September 24th the date, 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 P. M., the time, and Elm Hall, over the Fire House, on Forrest avenue, the place.

And the event—Narberth's Annual Fall Flower Show.

Do you have to have very wonderful flowers to exhibit at an amateur local flower show?

Not at all, just the flowers you grow in your own garden. Your competitors are your own neighbors. A lot can be learned about flowers at the show, in fact the whole idea of a flower show is an educational one, that older folks will know the flowers better and have a fuller appreciation of their points of merit, and that interest is stimulated in the younger children.

When we can grow more and better flowers we can have a better looking town, and healthier, happier people.

See the list of classes in Our Town next week and on the day of the show and BRING YOUR FLOWERS, come to the show, get out that fancy basket and dress it up with flowers, get the children to pick garden flowers and wild flowers and bring them, teach the children to appreciate the flowers and their arrangement and color harmony.

Come and meet your fellow gardeners and learn and talk flowers.

To-day two weeks, the 24th.

The Bird Column

It was not the intention of the present writer to prolong the discussion on the English sparrow, but the unreasonable attack on my last article by Mr. Stedem in the issue of August 27th calls for some reply.

In the first place his letter begins, "Lifelong investigation by the greatest naturalist has shown that, to a larger extent, the English sparrow tends to replace other species of birds around our homes," is opening paragraph on page 4, August 20th issue of Our Town.

If Mr. Stedem will refer to the issue of August 20th, he will discover that I said "the greatest naturalists," not naturalist. Neither I nor anyone else in Narberth is in a position to say who is the greatest naturalist.

By the greatest naturalists, I refer to nine out of ten of those writers and students whose works and observations have done much to advance ornithology.

To be specific, Mr. Stedem asks me to quote John Burroughs. As every one knows, Mr. Burroughs never made any pretense at being an economic naturalist. In the country he was little bothered by these pests, yet he recognizes their menace elsewhere, as he says in his book, "Far and Near." "The English sparrows tend to run out our native birds in towns and smaller cities." In the same book, also, he gives methods of combating them.

Concerning Neltje Blanchan.

In this letter, reference is made to Neltje Blanchan as "a man of heart," "a city and town man of accomplishment, and an artist—consult him." I did consult "him" and find "he" was, not a city and town man, but Mrs. Frank Nelson Doubleday, wife of the president of Doubleday, Page and Co.

Neltje Blanchan was not the vigorous opponent of this nuisance that the other naturalists are; she realized, however, the danger of "these prolific little pests," as she called them, and said further, "As the 'yellow peril' is to human immigration, so is this sparrow to other birds." Reversing the order of Pope's epigram on vice, we first embraced, then pitied, and now must endure the English sparrow.

As for the hackneyed remark about the swivel-chair agriculturist, and the accusation that the scientific reports on the sparrow are faked to meet a demand, such an "argument," on the face of it, begs a retort.

The letter says further that bluebirds never did nest on our porches and never will. Rather a pat statement, and quite evidently the opinion of one observer, and being the observation of a sparrow-fancier, one cannot wonder at the dearth of the species mentioned.

The writer, on a visit in New York State in August, was shown a box in which bluebirds had raised a brood a few weeks before. It was on a busy back porch, within a few steps of the door, and there were no English sparrows on the premises.

But the sparrow controversy is a matter of personal opinion, (one for them, and ninety-nine against them.) Baron von Berlepsch is the recognized pioneer and authority on attracting wild birds to our homes. His statement is a fitting conclusion to these articles. "The increase of other kinds is in inverse ratio to the decrease in sparrows."

SEMI-FINALS IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT DUE TO BE PLAYED THIS AFTERNOON

6-3, 2-6, 6-4; J. Allen and Grigan defeated Cowin and Pattison, 6-1, 6-3; Kirkpatrick and Staples defeated Warwick and Shaw, 4-6, 6-4, 11-9; McKell and McCahill defeated W. Fretz and C. McCarter, 6-2, 3-6, 6-4.

SECOND ROUND—Scanlin defeated Hartley, 9-7, 5-7, 6-4; M. Allen defeated Baer, 6-8, 6-4, 6-3; E. Warwick defeated Bailey, 6-4, 6-2; Smedley defeated W. W. Evans, 6-4, 2-6, 7-5.

Consolation Doubles.

PRELIMINARY ROUND—Kruse and Muschamp defeated Bailey and Cameron, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4; Sefton and Hartley won from Little and W. D. R. Evans by default.

FIRST ROUND—Dunne and Scanlin defeated Downes and Redifer, Jr., 6-3, 7-5; Fenno and Boryer defeated Sefton and Hartley, 6-2, 6-4.

Notes of the Tournament.

There's no doubt about it, the members of the Refreshment Committee, of the Ladies' Auxiliary, were the most efficient—and most popular folks, on the courts over Labor Day. Mrs. Harry Hartley was the chairman, and she was assisted by Mrs. Brook Sefton, Miss Fannie Loos, Mrs. James F. Donnelly, Mrs. H. Chamberlain Fenno and Mrs. W. J. Kirkpatrick. They served "hot dogs" sandwiches, crullers, ice cream cones and lots of other good things throughout lunch time Monday, and many members and their family made an all-day stay at the courts.

Query: Why didn't this tournament seem just like other tournaments?

Answer: Via wireless from Avalon—"The fishing over Labor Day was the finest in the last fifty years. Among the prominent fishermen seen hauling 'em in may be mentioned W. R. D. Hall, of Narberth."

"Why I thought there were only three Fretz boys?" said Jim Follin, as a bounding airdale bounded into the arena. "No," replied Bob, "there's me and Bill and Franklin—and Blimp!"

Speaking of the Fretz trio, Frank is certainly there when it comes to doing the Tarzan of the Apes stuff. Tarzan would have turned green with envy and rolled over and died if he had seen the agility with which Frank climbed up the wire fence, scaled the top and lifted the referee's stands over the wire.

Matches start this afternoon at two o'clock.

It is possible that the finals in both the Singles and Doubles will be played this afternoon. But if they are not and are scheduled for next Saturday, the Tournament Committee has decided that should they conflict with the finals in the National Singles Championship matches, the Narberth finals will be postponed a week. The National Singles finals, according to schedule, should be played next Friday. A day of rain, however, may throw the big event over to the following day—Saturday. In that event, our Tournament Committee, knowing that many members of the Narberth Association would be planning to go out to Manheim to see the deciding contest, decided it would only be fair to postpone our Narberth finals one week.

THE FIRESIDE

Mrs. J. A. Caldwell, Grandma Caldwell, and Jack and Jill Caldwell, were at Chelsea last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Speed are entertaining Mr. Jim Hughes, Jr., of Wilmington, Del.

Mr. Arthur Edrop, who has been spending his vacation at Ocean City, has returned home with his family.

Mr. Edward E. Bossert, of Woodside avenue, has returned home from the hospital.

Mrs. William Livingston has returned home from Hancock, New York, where she has spent the month of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Prescott and Miss Ruth E. Prescott have left town for a trip to Bermuda.

Mr. Robert A. Mueller, of Narberth, is a delegate to the State Firemen's Convention to be held at Wilkes-Barre, on October 3 to 6.

Did you ever see a moose head in the Betty Shop or in Robert J. Nash's real estate office? No! Neither did anyone else, although Joseph P. White and Bob Nash spent ten days and a few nickels on a hunting (not gunning) trip. Although no big or little game was bagged, "a nice time was had by all."
